Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Apr. 24, 2023, ECF No. 36. In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Id. at 2.

Respondent reacted to the motion on May 3, 2023, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded at my discretion. Response to Motion at 2-3, 3 n.2, ECF No. 37. Two days later - on May 5, 2023, Petitioner filed a reply requesting attorney's fees and costs be awarded in full. ECF No. 38.

The rates requested for work performed through the end of 2022 are reasonable and consistent with our prior determinations, and will therefore be adopted. Petitioner has also requested 2023 attorney hourly rates as follows: $463 for work performed by Leah Durant - representing a rate increase of $22. ECF No. 36-1 at 11. Additionally, Petitioner requests an hourly rate of $173 for paralegal work performed in 2023. Id. I find these hourly rates to be reasonable, and will award the attorney's fees requested. (And all time billed to the matter was also reasonably incurred).

Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. And Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $30,180.21 (representing $29,297.10 in fees and $883.11 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Leah VaSahnja Durant.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.<sup>3</sup>
